City Pool Now Open!

Splash! Canyon youngsters and oldsters alike will be hearing this sound often during the next three months, as they swim at the City Pool.

The pool opened Tuesday afternoon, June 1, and will be open seven days a week. Hours are from 1-7 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 2-6 Sunday.

Admission will be 25 cents for ages 20 and below, and 40 cents for over 21. Season tickets may be purchased at $10 for children and $12 for adults.

Serving as pool manager for the season this year is Davis Price. Kay Jarnagin will be lifeguard.

Swimming lessons will be offered through the Red Cross. Schedule for the lessons will be announced next week, according to Price.

Tom Smith Injured By Police Dog

Tom Smith, Canyon policeman, lost a finger last Thursday as he attempted to train a dog he had acquired some two days before.

The dog, a German Shepherd, was given to Smith by a nearby sheriff's department. Smith was attempting to train the dog.

LaGrone Ambulance took Smith to Neblett Hospital where he was treated and released later the same day. The dog was removed to Markham Veterinary Clinic, and will be kept for ten days and then destroyed.

WILLIE WIECK of Umbarger holds a sugar beet, which was grown on his place 12 miles west of Canyon. The Wiecks have some 75 acres of sugar beets planted, and from the looks of this one, prospects for a good yield are great. Last year Wieck harvested some 316,000 pounds of sugar from 40 acres. He's looking for better results this year.

Register At WT June 8

Registration for the first summer term at West Texas State University will open Tuesday, June 8 at 8 a.m. in the foyer of the West Dining Hall and the Student Union Building, Registrar Frank H. Morgan has announced.

An orientation session for beginning freshmen is scheduled at 8 a.m. Monday in the Administration Building auditorium.

Classes for the first term open at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, and last date for enrollment for the term is June 12.

First term closes July 16 with final examinations, and registration for the second term is July 20.

High Yield Expected By Wheat Growers

Yields of 50 bushels per acre from some of the better fields of irrigated wheat could be common in Randall County, according to county agent John Brazzil.

Growers expect to beat the 30 to 35 bushel average of last year on the irrigated acres. An estimated 25 to 30 thousand acres of oats, barley, and wheat should be ready for harvest late this month.

The dryland wheat crop is maturing rapidly. Yields of 10 to 12 bushels per acre will be produced in many areas when harvest gets underway in mid-June.

Some yields will be in the 5 to 7 bushel per acre range. Hail and high winds is the big worry now to small grain producers.

Cotton growers have about completed planting and most fields are up to a good stand.

Grain sorghum planting has been quite active. Some fields are up and looking good. Much planting is yet to be done, Brazzil said.

The ranges and pastures are still short. May showers gave the grass a good start but by June 1 much of this moisture was depleated and growth of grass had stopped. Sudan type crops are being planted to relieve the pressure on overgrazed ranges and pastures.

Prices received by producers for livestock has shown considerable strength this spring. Hog prices are very attractive, according to Brazzil.

Canyon received 1.88 inches of moisture during the month of May, according to Dr. M.B. Measamer, professor of geography at West Texas State University.

This compares with 2.75 inches, which is considered a norm for the month, Measamer explained.

For the year, Canyon has a total of 5.12 inches of moisture. The norm generally runs at 6.17, Measamer said.

COVERING FUMBLES
by Dean Mitch Jones

I am glad that I have learned to love my fellow men; otherwise I would not be able to tolerate them.

MOONLIGHT MADNESS supplies began coming into Canyon this week as merchants prepared for the promotion, which will be held June 10 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Some 30 local businesses will participate in the promotion, and $100 in cash will be given away during the special sale.

Draft Sign-Up Urged

There has been a widespread neglect on the part of young men to register for selective service immediately upon reaching the age of 18.

This information came this week from Wesley Kleinschmidt, member of the draft board.

He said young men should register within a week of their 18th birthday. He noted that the selective service law provides severe penalties for those who fail to comply.

Ray McReynolds, 2510 Sixth Avenue, along with Kleinschmidt, 2010 Sixth Avenue, are members of Selective Service Board 18 which has offices in Hereford.

Kleinschmidt said any young man wishing to register may do so at either the Kleinschmidt or the McReynolds home.

Softball For Girls

Canyon Kiwanis Club is sponsoring a girl's softball league this summer.

Bidding for players will be conducted this afternoon, Thursday, at 5 o'clock on the north side of the courthouse lawn. All girls, ages 12-14, who signed up to participate in the league are urged to be present to be selected for a team.

The girl's softball league will play three nights a week throughout June. Games will be held on the men's softball diamond.

Action is slated to begin Monday evening, June 7, at 6 p.m. Games are also scheduled for Tuesday night with a doubleheader on Friday.

Coaches for the team will be Charles Wright, George Blackwell, Kenny Olson, and Elton Cox. Wayne Edmondson is serving the Kiwanis Club as chairman of the boys and girls work committee. League secretary will be Barbara Rolando.

Stores Open Late June 10

$100 in cash will be given away during the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Moonlight Madness promotion next Thursday, June 10.

The money will be given to the winner of the Man In The Moon Contest, which will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

Merchants promotion will be held in Canyon Thursday evening with nearly 30 businesses and firms participating.

To win the $100, a person should read clues which will be displayed on signs in participating firms windows. Persons entering can register in any of the firms which will be open for the Moonlight Madness sale.

"Different clues will appear in each participating business window," said Benny Cooper, chairman of the promotion. "People can enter as many times as they wish."

Winner will be announced in the June 17 issue of The Canyon News.

The Man in the Moon will be a local, well-known merchant or businessman, according to Cooper.

The some 30 stores which will participate will have special prices on merchandise dur-

First Baptist Church will kick-off their annual Vacation Bible School with a parade, slated Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.

All motor vehicles, unusual and otherwise, from fire trucks to steam rollers, will roll in the parade, to advertise the Bible school. Vehicles will parade through residential areas of Canyon.

All vehicles should be on the parking lot of the church by 9:30 a.m. Saturday, to be decorated by boys and girls. The cars will bear balloons, streamers, and placards identifying the parade.

Lack Of Help Slows LL Play

Little League minor and 8-year-old teams are in need of adult coaches, according to Richmond Hales, LL president.

Hales said, "We need coaches for four minor league teams and one 8-year-old team. We also want adult assistance where possible."

In regular Little League play last Friday evening the Redlegs downed the Braves, 10-3, with Arrington as winning pitcher. The Dodgers outdid the Braves, 4-3, under the pitching of Smith.

Saturday's games were Yankees over the Redlegs, 7-3, under the pitching of Mariner, and Braves over the Dodgers with Downing as winning pitcher.

Monday's game between the Astros and Yankees was postponed. It will be played Friday, June 4.

Dodgers and Redlges met on the field Tuesday evening with the final score of 12-10 in favor of the Dodgers. Gerber was winning pitcher.

Schedule for this week includes the Braves vs Yankees tonight, June 3. Astros and Yankees play Friday evening.

Saturday's slate will be Astros vs Redlegs; Braves will play Astros Monday; Yankees will meet Dodgers in the game Tuesday.

Secretary On Duty

Janiece Eudy began duties Tuesday as secretary to Roland Black, manager of Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Eudy will enroll at West Texas State University for the fall semester.

She was hired by the Chamber through the work study program of West Texas State University. Black said she will work full time during the summer months and part time while school is in session.

He said the Chamber will pay 10 percent of her salary and the federal government will pay the remaining 90 percent.

Boys' State is sponsored by American Legion Posts in states throughout the country, along with its sister group, Girls' State. Each American Legion Post within the state is allowed one delegate for each hundred members. American Legion auxiliary sponsors delegates to Girls' State.

He is a member of National Honor Society and the science club at Canyon High, and lists amateur mechanics and electronics as his hobbies.

The group of boys from the Panhandle will leave from Amarillo tomorrow, Friday, and go by bus to Austin.

While in the capital city, the boys will stay on the University of Texas campus. They will divide into two parties and compete for election to office.

"Each boy who attends the gathering has a definite role in setting up government on a city, county and state level," stated Wes Kleinschmidt, commander of Palo Duro American Legion Post 91 in Canyon.

Alvis Fred Bible sustained a broken arm while playing last Monday.

The child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John "Boots" Bible of Arkansas and was visiting in Canyon with his grandmother, Verna Bible, and other relatives.

He was taken to Neblett Hospital and Clinic in Canyon where he was treated overnight and released.

His mother, Mrs. John Bible, is also visiting in Canyon with relatives.

The cast, technicians, and the sound and light workers will meet in the Fine Arts Building on the West Texas State University campus at 7 p.m. Monday, according to directors Mr. and Mrs. William Moore.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

Fishing was good last week end at Possum Kingdom. I went down with several Boy Scouts. I believe there were more than 80 in the group.

I was assigned to H.R. Fulton's boat. In our group there were myself, H.R., Bob and Bobby Brotherton and Nobie Cates. All of us like to fish.

We had very little luck during the daytime but on our first night out we ran into a man who owns a fishing dock at the lake. He confided that if fish were biting anywhere on the lake they'd be hitting there.

We accepted his invitation to tie up at his dock and fish. We were rewarded with a basket full of fish the first night. We were back on the lake as soon as possible but didn't catch a single fish during the day. We returned to the dock that night and again reeled them in.

My bunch voted to come home Monday afternoon. H.R. stayed for another night of fishing and he tells us that Monday night's catch was even better than those of the two previous nights.

The boys were treated to a fish fry and then brought fish home with them.

Possum Kingdom has beautiful water and poor facilities. Rest room facilities are exceptionally poor and drinking water must be purchased by the jug.

This doesn't seem to keep people from flocking to the lakeside. Officials at the lake said attendance set a new record for Memorial Day last week end.

More leisure time and more population swiftly is making recreation the nation's leading business.

My son, Jamie, likes to water ski and doesn't cotton much to fishing so we didn't see much of him from the time we got there until the time of our return.

We were accompanied by Bob Hendrickson and his son, Bruce, and Mike Hines.

Bob is interested in photography, skiing and many other things.

Bob happened by the service station where he trades the other day.

The attendant had a monkey.

"What are you doing with that monkey?" he inquired.

"I'm going to give it to you, if you'll take it," the attendant replied.

"And that's why I've got a monkey cage on my front porch with a monkey in it," Bob told me almost sadly at 4:30 last Saturday morning when I dropped by to pick up him and Bruce.

An editorial in The Dallas Morning News last week praised the Canyon school board for naming the South Amarillo school for Gene Howe.

A Canyon policeman last week got his hand mangled when the police dog with which he was working turned on him.

I have always taken a dim view of police using vicious dogs. My point of view is bolstered by what happened to Policeman Tom Smith last week. The dog wounded Smith's hand so severely that a portion of his finger was amputated.

Smith is lucky. He easily could have been killed. I shudder to think of what would happen if such a dog were suddenly to go berserk around a crowd, especially a crowd of children.

I may be old fashioned but I don't think Canyon needs police dogs.

Have you ever figured out if women dress for men or for other women?

An age old question, but it pops up ever-so-often.

For instance, does a 13 or 14 year old fix her hair, shorten her skirts, and wait for the phone to ring--all for a girlfriend? I doubt it, or at least I never did.

Now take the college coed. She learns a new way of doing her hair, and it changes each week. She masters the use of make up of all kinds. She learns the very proper manners for all occasions. And her final achievement is learning to sort-of smile-giggle at a clever remark.

And all for her sorority sisters? There again, it is doubtful.

And of course if you get out of college without a permanent mate--married type--you really begin to put on the charm. Well, so they tell me.

Constantly the young or old working girl keeps abreast of the latest styles. She spends her hard-earned money on clothes, clothes and more garb. And all this for the girls? Don't kid yourself.

Now what about the married gal. This is a field of which I'm more than just a little ignorant, but let me express a few ideas.

Women are quick to praise or criticize other women's clothing. So consequently women of all ages dress for approval of other women.

But, let a man say, "I sure do like that dress," or "Why don't you wear that blue thing." And let me tell you, she'll be in that thing before he can turn around--no matter what the other dames may say.

This again must be done with good taste. A women doesn't jump into a pair of slacks her husband or boy friend likes if they are going out to a formal dinner. But even in the formal gown or dress, our little lady is trying desperately to keep her husband's eyes on HER.

She is probably trying to keep the eyes of all the other men and women at the party on her also. If not, why in heaven's name did she spend $110 for that dress, which she will not wear more than four or five times?

So, does a girl dress for women or men?

It depends on the age and of course the person. Me? A women's comment is nice, but the day is complete if a man--any man--notices.

LIGE FRIEZE celebrated 40 years with Warren's Dry Goods in Canyon Tuesday. A special cake was presented to the longtime employee of Warren's, and friends were invited in to participate in the party. With Frieze is his wife, Evelyn.

Four Enter State 4-H Competition

Four representatives from Randall County 4-H Clubs competed Tuesday through today, Thursday, in the annual 4-H roundup at College Station.

Entered in competition were Bob and Cindy Gruner, son and daughter of the Forrest Gruners, with a cooperative demonstration. Judy Boehning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Boehning, and Mary Cummins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cunnins entered with a demonstration on civil defense.

Also attending the roundup are Mr. and Mrs. David Pulley. Mrs. Pulley is Randall County Home Demonstration Agent.

Some 2000 persons are at the meet, with delegates from throughout the state of Texas, county agents, officers and friends of 4-H attending.

Contestants are entered in some 30 judging and team demonstrations, with results or the competition announced late Wednesday. Winners were honored at the final banquet, held Wednesday evening.

In order to be eligible to participate in state finals, the team or individual must have ranked first or second in district eliminations. Some 1,300 4-Hers are competing for honors, and for the chance to represent Texas in the national finals later in the summer.

The roundup will officially end with breakfast this morning, June 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Welch and children, Darla and Rickey, of Perryton visited recently with her mother, Mrs. Bill Griffin.

Visiting with Mrs. Griffin last week end were her daughter, Juanita White and daughter, Delissa, of Amarillo and son, Wayne, and family from El Paso.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Haddock and other relatives recently were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haddock and children, Ralph, Ronald and Karen, of Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Old Settlers Reunion?

An Editorial

Last year Canyon observed its 75th birthday with speeches, barbecue and marching. There was dancing in the streets and an old-fashioned rodeo.

For the past several years there has been an annual old settlers reunion. We like this tie to the past.

Folks need to get together, eat barbecue, make merry and remember their heritage.

This year it looks like there may be no celebration at all. There's going to be a meeting of civic leaders Tuesday to make a decision on the matter.

We hope they decide in favor of the old settlers reunion. In the first place, several years of hard work will go down the drain if the tradition is broken.

In the second place, remembering our heritage is good for us.

We can't live in the past but remembering those who went on before us and honoring their contributions to our present well-being serves as a guidepost for the future.

— Letter To The Editor —

Dear Sir,

My sister, Dixie Foster Hill recently sent me Section 3 (History of Boy Scouts in Canyon) of your May 13 paper.

The column on Levi Cole was especially interesting to me since it covered my scout days and brought back many pleasant memories.

Dozens of Canyon boys during the 1932-1947 period owe Levi Cole and D.A. Nicholas and their understanding wives a large debt of thanks for the many days and nights they devoted to us and scouting. These were happy, character building days and ones which we will never forget.

I hope that your present scout leaders can do as much for your young scouts now as these two fine men did for ours.

Sincerely yours,
Don Foster

Canyon and Happy residents took time during busy activities of Memorial Day to honor deceased servicemen at services held in Dreamland Cemetery. Those attending saw flags placed on graves of veterans, heard "Taps," a meditation, and watched the final raising of the flag--in silent tribute to those who had given their lives in past and present conflicts.

Local Observances Cite Memorial Day

Memorial Day--1965--found Canyon and Happy residents honoring veterans of past wars in both public and private observance.

Lucius Penick Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5681 held their annual breakfast, honoring Gold Star mothers. Present for the observance were Mrs. Win Matsler, Mrs. Maria Hernandez, Mrs. Beulah McCoy, and Mrs. John Hunter, Gold Star mothers of Canyon.

Speaking for the event was Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of First Methodist Church of Canyon.

In the afternoon, some 75 persons from the area gathered at Dreamland Cemetery for the annual Memorial service, sponsored by LaGrone Funeral Chapel, and Dreamland Cemetery Association.

Starnes was also guest speaker for the service, with visitors watching as "Taps" was blown by Andy Hull, son of Mrs.

Truett Hull. An honor guard from Amarillo Air Force Base raised and lowered the flag to half mast, commemorating veterans of the Civil War, the Spanish American War, and of World Wars One and Two.

Graves of some 117 veterans of all conflicts were decorated by members of the VFW Post and Palo Duro Post 91, American Legion.

Fred and Sam Richard, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richard of Canyon, were recently presented God and Country awards by First Methodist Church.

The awards are given to Boy Scouts who have rendered service to their own churches and church families. Awards are made through the individual church boards, rather than as Boy Scout awards.

The brothers are members of Boy Scout troop 31, under the leadership of A.M. Warren, scoutmaster. Both boys attended the troop summer camp this week and will participate in the Junior Leader Training Camp at Philmont Scout Ranch later in the summer.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1½ inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.
